pick up the trash.

SENATOR REUTZEL: Senator, that is on the fiscal note on the original bill which is not applicable at this point because the committee amendments are a different bill.

SENATOR HABERMAN: This scares me, Senator Reutzel, because we are starting a new state program. We are going to have the state run it and we don't have the facts of the fiscal sheet.

SENATOR REUTZEL: Senator Haberman, we aren't establishing a new program. We are extending what we already have in existence and we are going from a figure of $20 a bale, which we are getting now, a ton up to $85 a bale.

SENATOR HABERMAN: You started your present program with $120, didn't you?

SENATOR REUTZEL: On a pilot project for a few offices in the first floor and second floor (interruption).

SENATOR HABERMAN: And it is working good. Now you want a $120,000 or $170,000.

SENATOR REUTZEL: That is rather simplistic, Senator Haberman. We are talking about two different programs. We are talking about peanuts to....

SENATOR HABERMAN: I know that. I realize that. So until you come up with a program from the prison and....

SENATOR REUTZEL: Senator Haberman, we have every detail. The Fire Marshal....

SENATOR HABERMAN: You are not answering questions. You are debating with me and I asked you to yield to a question, Senator Reutzel. Thank you, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Newell, then Senator Simon, and then Senator Rumery and then Senator Schmit.

SENATOR NEWELL: I would like to call the question at this time.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The question has been called for. Shall debate cease? We are on the committee amendments. The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed no. The question is, shall debate cease?
