

May 8, 1979

LB 585

SENATOR DeCAMP: I'd try call-ins if you want to take them first.

PRESIDENT: Alright, call-ins. Alright, we'll accept call-ins.

CLERK: Senator Fitzgerald voting aye. Senator Nichol voting aye.

PRESIDENT: Would everybody please get to their....all members get to their desks so that you're not accused of lobbying.

CLERK: Senator Brennan....

PRESIDENT: I know that no one would do such a thing, but it's....

CLERK: Senator Brennan voting aye. Senator Hoagland voting no.

PRESIDENT: There are still some votes out here that you can take in if you want while people are still not...

CLERK: Senator Dworak voting no.

PRESIDENT: Did you get Senator Kennedy over there?

CLERK: Senator Kennedy voting aye.

PRESIDENT: Senator Cullan over here yet.

CLERK: Senator Cullan voting....changing from yes to no.

PRESIDENT: Alright, ready?

CLERK: Senator Kennedy changing from yes to no.

PRESIDENT: Alright....

CLERK: Senator Reutzel changing from yes to not voting.

PRESIDENT. Has everybody made all the changes they're going to make? Record the vote. Come on let's...we could change all day here.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 18 nays, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Twenty-five?