

May 10, 1979

LB 586, 588

have much latitude or many employees to trade money from. A lot of them have only two or three employees. Now I guess if this section is binding on all the other state agencies then I think Senator Newell might have a point, but at least as far as these cash funded agencies, I don't think striking "professional" makes a lot of difference.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The Chair recognizes Senator Newell for purposes of closing on his amendment.

SENATOR NEWELL: Mr. President, members of the body, Senator Fowler has pointed out a very good point and also as I notice I would have to offer this amendment on other bills like 588. 588 is for political offices, in other words, secretary of state and so forth, and I think that for the remainder of the bills that are on Final Reading today that I will not try to offer this amendment but I will offer this amendment in the future on other bills for large agencies and so forth with professional employees so taking Senator Fowler's suggestion and also realizing that 588 is not the place to really try to put this on, I will withdraw this motion and I will offer them on other bills that are up before Final Reading so I thank you. I ask unanimous consent if that is necessary to withdraw the motion.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Hearing no objection, so ordered. The Clerk will read LB 586 on Final Reading.

CLERK: Read LB 586 on Final Reading.

SPEAKER MARVEL: All provisions of law having been complied with, the question is, shall the bill pass with the emergency clause attached? All those in favor vote aye, opposed no. Clerk, record the vote.

CLERK: Record vote read. (See page 2019, Legislative Journal.) 43 ayes, 0 nays, 2 excused and not voting and 4 present and not voting, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The bill is declared passed with the emergency clause attached. The Clerk will now read LB 588.

CLERK: Read LB 588 on Final Reading.

SPEAKER MARVEL: All provisions of law having been complied with, the question is, shall the bill pass with the emergency clause attached? All those in favor vote aye, opposed no.