SENATOR NICHOL: Senator Dworak, your light is on. Senator Haberman, your light is on. Senator Lamb.

SENATOR LAMB: Mr. President and members, could I ask Senator Koch a question please? Senator Koch.

SENATOR KOCH: Yes.

SENATOR LAMB: Are you putting a new group in or taking them out, I am confused?

SENATOR KOCH: In this case I would be exempting those businesses that deal with printed material.

SENATOR LAMB: Does that include newspapers?

SENATOR KOCH: Newspapers as I understand are already exempted.

SENATOR LAMB: Then that would include magazines...

SENATOR KOCH: In other words, without putting this in there, we would have newspapers, literary material and things of that nature to be exempt.

SENATOR LAMB: How about wrappers that having printing on them?

SENATOR KOCH: Have what?

SENATOR LAMB: Candy wrappers that have printing on them?

SENATOR KOCH: I didn't have that in mind.

SENATOR NICHOL: Ladies and gentlemen, we are voting on the Koch amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Senator Koch.

SENATOR KOCH: First of all, Mr. Chairman, I didn't get to close and I feel rather offended.

SENATOR NICHOL: Senator Koch, I really apologize. Would you like to close?

SENATOR KOCH: If I get 25 votes, it would not be necessary.

SENATOR NICHOL: Do you think we can keep this conversation up that long?
