spending his time with the Lord and as we commend God and ourselves to Him, let us look to God whom Bill loved and served in our common prayer of memory. All mighty and ever gracious spirit from whom we come, to whom we belong and in whose service is our joy, we thank you this morning for the many mercies of memories that Bill Hasebroock means for us, for his doing justly loving mercy and walking humbly with you we are grateful. Give to us and his family now such spiritual triumph as we remember him, that in our hearts death may be swallowed up in victory. For those qualities which we might enumerate we are grateful, his devotion to his family, his wife and dear ones, his generous good will to his friends, his patriotism as a citizen, his unselfishness as a Senator, for his high honor as a man, we thank you and for the many years of able service which he has rendered to many a worthy cause we thank you. Give now especially to those who most intimately mourn his going, wide margins of comfort around their spiritual need and deep wells from which to draw their consolation and strength. So support us, not only in this day but all the days of our lives until for us the shadows lengthen and the evening comes and the busy world is hushed and the fever of life is over and our work is done at last and then in your mercy grant us a safe lodging, a holy rest and peace forever more and so may the peace of God that passes all understanding keep our hearts and minds in the knowledge and love and truth of His son and be with us and go with us and those who love and serve you, both now and in all the generations of men and women to come. Amen.

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Chaplain Palmer and Speaker Marvel for this fitting tribute to our friend, Bill. The Clerk has suggested and I think it would be a good idea to have a showing on the board of those that might be interested in going up to West Point Saturday. It is at eleven. Leave from Lincoln, what the Clerk is interested in is if there are enough of you interested in getting transportation, to leave from Lincoln. How many of you would want to go up to attend the memorial services? The board will be open, Senator Rumery. Let's all just indicate with the green light if you now know that you plan to go. Senator Nichol.

SENATOR NICHOL: Mr. Chairman, would this ride be available for spouses also or not?

PRESIDENT: Why don't we see how many basically and then we will have an indication of how many spouses would also go because that would add to the...

SENATOR NICHOL: Thank you.
