SPEAKER MARVEL: Oh you're arguing....don't you have a motion up here to adjourn sine die?

SENATOR VENDITTE: I do have that motion....

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, I thought you were speaking to that and I was going to let Senator DeCamp finish that presentation and then speak to your motion, because I guess I'm the only one that is able to speak to a sine die motion, and I think we have to take your motion, unless you want to withdraw it temporarily.

SENATOR VENDITTE: The adjournment...the sine die motion?

SPEAKER MARVEL: Yes.

SENATOR VENDITTE: I would like to take that up now, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, the question...the Chair...

SENATOR DeCAMP: .....overrule my speech I was making?

SPEAKER MARVEL: Yes. The Clerk...

SENATOR VENDITTEE: Mr. Speaker....Mr. Speaker, for the time being, I think let's....I would like to withdraw that motion and I would like to get to the issue at hand.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Well, now, now....

SENATOR VENDITTE: I guess if you want to take up the adjournment motion now, the sine die motion, I would ask unanimous consent first of all to withdraw that motion, if that is in order.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, is there any objection to withdrawal of the sine die motion from Senator Venditte? Hearing none, so ordered. Now Senator DeCamp, will you proceed?

SENATOR VENDITTE: Well, Mr. Speaker, can I....

SPEAKER MARVEL: No, no sir. We have rules of etiquette here, Senator Venditte, and you can't interrupt...

SENATOR VENDITTE: Well, the rules don't allow him to do what he is doing, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Excuse me, may I....may I finish what I
