LB 382

CLERK: 21 ayes, 2 nays to go under Call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The House is under Call. All legislators please leave their seats. All unauthorized personnel please leave the floor. It has been a long day, hasn't it. Please take your seats. That was a Freudian slip. Please take your seat. All unauthorized personnel please leave the floor. And please record your presence. Senator Burrows. Senator George, no, Senator George is absent. Senator Goodrich, Senator Lewis, Senator Newell. Mr. Sergeant at Arms, will you see if you can find Senator Lewis and Senator Goodrich.

SENATOR CLARK PRESIDING

SENATOR CLARK: Do you want to start? Start the roll call. Senator Lewis is excused and they haven't been able to find Senator Goodrich. They haven't been able to find him but he is not excused. Would you mind me letting you have the Speaker for this, please? I know the rule but I don't want to say it.

SPEAKER MARVEL PRESIDING

SPEAKER MARVEL: Mr. Sergeant at Arms, have you located Senator Goodrich? Has somebody gone down after him? Senator Venditte, do you want to start? What is your request, a roll call vote?

SENATOR VENDITTE: It is my understanding, Mr. Speaker, that there are still two Senators who are out of the room who have not been excused and, obviously, Mr. Speaker, those two votes are quite crucial to our efforts here.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Goodrich is not here. Senator Lewis has been excused.

SENATOR VENDITTE: Has Senator Goodrich been excused? He has not been excused, is that right? And Senator Rumery.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Rumery has been on the excused list most of the afternoon.

SENATOR VENDITTE: Mr. Speaker, would it be in order to ask that maybe perhaps we can delay this until tomorrow morning?

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Rumery, would you record your presence please? Shall we proceed with the roll call vote? Senator Venditte, shall we proceed with the roll call vote?
