

January 21, 1981

LR 187

vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Record the vote.

CLERK: 29 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion carries. The committee recommendation and motion is adopted. Senator Kennedy is appointed. Senator Marsh, is there anything further from the Committee on Committees?

SENATOR MARSH: No, thank you very much.

PRESIDENT: Thank you for your report. We will then continue on the agenda with agenda item #8 on resolutions, LR 187. Senator Sieck, do you wish the Clerk to read the...? That is found on, where in the Journal, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Mr. President, Senators Sieck, Maresh and Kremer offer LR 187. It is found on page 302 of the Journal. (Read LR 187.) Mr. President, that resolution is again found on page 302 of the Journal.

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Sieck.

SENATOR SIECK: Thank you, Mr. President, members of the body, first of all, I noticed on the agenda that the Journal date is not correct but if the Journal date would be correct this wouldn't come up until next month so it should be 1-21. This resolution was given to me or the suggestion was given to me by the Director of the Correctional Service and I felt that it was a very very good idea. Being a part of York and I've visited the institution several times, I have noticed that this is very much needed in this particular area. Now what this resolution calls for, it opens the door for fund raising for a planned chapel at the Nebraska Center for Women. Now at this time the primary organizations in support of establishing this chapel at the Women's Reformatory is the Nebraska Organization of Church Women United. Now the Church Women United is a non-profit organization with affiliate chapters throughout the state. Now this is the same group that organized and built a chapel at Geneva for the Girls' Home. Now the Church Women United have already established a task force to begin this work. All they need now is the permission to get the grants to do this. They have been working with the superintendent at the Nebraska Center for Women and have researched this with the following conclusions. For the past several years inadequate meeting rooms have been used for chapel services. The