LB 235, 483

CLERK: I have nothing further on the bill, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Senator Nichol.

SENATOR NICHOL: Mr. Chairman, I move for the advancement of LB 235.

PRESIDENT: Motion to advance LB 235 to E & R for engrossment. Any discussion? All those in favor signify by saying aye, opposed nay. LB 235 is advanced to E & R for engrossment. The next bill is LB 483.

CLERK: Mr. President, there are E & R amendments to LB 483.

PRESIDENT: Senator Stoney.

SENATOR STONEY: Mr. President, I move the E & R amendments to LB 483.

PRESIDENT: The motion is to adopt the E & R amendments to LB 483. Any discussion? All those in favor signify by saying aye, opposed nay. The E & R amendments are adopted on LB 483.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Vickers now moves to amend and those amendments are found on page 421 of the Legislative Journal.

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Vickers.

SENATOR VICKERS: Mr. President, members, this amendment is one that I brought to the attention of the body when this bill was discussed on General File. Very simply it is saying that in the bill as written that if one parent should pass away then the records are released immediately even though the other parent might still be living. I don't think that was the intent. I think it was simply a mistake. So this amendment is to clarify that before their records are released, whether or not the parents had a, proved of the release, both parents have to be passed away before that could happen. I urge the adoption of this amendment.

PRESIDENT: Is there any further discussion on the Vickers amendment? If not, Senator Vickers, I guess that is your opening and closing. The motion is the adoption of the Vickers amendment to LB 483. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Voting on the Vickers
