LB 747

Newell, you have one minute.

SENATOR NEWELL: Yes, Mr. President, I would like to call the question. This has been fun, but...

PRESIDENT: All right. Do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? The motion is to cease debate on LB 747. Record the vote.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 7 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Debate ceases, and you don't have enough time to close so you better just go to a vote.

SENATOR WESELY: Well, remember this is LB 747 and I would really like to see it fly today.

PRESIDENT: All right, that is a good close. All those in favor of advancing LB 747 vote aye, opposed nay. Senator Wesely, what do you wish to do?

SENATOR WESELY: Well, I would hate to have a Call of the House. I can't keep up with the numbers up there.

PRESIDENT: How many are absent?

SENATOR WESELY: Yes, how many are absent?

PRESIDENT: Seven.

SENATOR WESELY: Seven? Well then...

PRESIDENT: Then you could do it...you could do it.

SENATOR WESELY: We are getting closer. Okay, I want a Call of the House.

PRESIDENT: All right, the motion is....Call of the House, all right. Record what is on the board. The motion before the House is, shall the House go under Call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. See what happened...look at that. The machine can't even take it, Senator Wesely. Senator Keyes, what did you wish to say while we are waiting for the machine?

SENATOR KEYES: Lt. Governor Luedtke, have we been on this bill fifteen minutes? If we have, I suggest we just pass on.
