LB 747

PRESIDENT: Well, we just....we got to that point and that is why we are taking a vote. All right, now the question is, shall the House go under Call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? The question is, shall the House go under Call? Have you all voted? Record the vote.

CLERK: 19 ayes, 7 nays to go under Call.

PRESIDENT: The House is under Call. The Sergeant at Arms will return all members to their desks. All nonlegislative personnel will leave the floor. All legislators will show your presence by pushing the present button. Senator Newell.

SENATOR NEWELL: Yes, I will accept call-in votes.

PRESIDENT: All right, we will accept call-in votes.

CLERK: Senator DeCamp voting aye. Senator Fitzgerald... you are still voting aye, Senator. Yes, sir, you had.

PRESIDENT: Senator Labeledz, do you want to show your presence? Senator Kelly. Senator Hoagland and Vickers. Senator Fowler, are you there? Yes. Yes, you are. Senator Cope. We are accepting call-in votes. Well, what do you want to do? Senator Goodrich.

SENATOR GOODRICH: I will ask for a roll call vote.

PRESIDENT: All right, we will have a roll call vote. Proceed with the roll call.

CLERK: (Read roll call vote as found on page 602 of the Legislative Journal.) 27 ayes, 12 nays, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion carries and LB 747 is advanced to E & R Initial. I hope that everybody has got that out of their system this morning. That only took a half an hour for a fifteen minute bill, so we are going great. Before we proceed to the next bill the Chair would take great pleasure in introducing some guests of Senator Shirley Marsh seated under the south balcony. Ole Christian Lagesen from Oslo, Norway, the Deputy Managing Editor of the Norwegian Broadcasting Corporation, along with Esther Bronson, his escort here in Lincoln. Would they stand and be recognized by the Legislature. Welcome Mr. Lagesen and Miss Bronson. Yes, for those of you wandering around, the House is under Call. Senator Murphy said, it is? Motion to lift
