

difference of opinion but to allow one person to sit up there and just shout people down because he has control of the mike is a mistake. Now I know I am only one person here and I accepted not being able to overrule the Chair on my vote but it is not enough when dealing with a Senator who has equal dignity and status on this floor to say when I am in the Chair, I don't have to read a rule. If I don't know enough about the rules I ought to get out of the Chair but other people are not going to put on me their limitations and whether it is Frank Lewis, Senator Marvel, just for the sake of the example, the Speaker himself, or the Lieutenant Governor, I am not going to be treated like a child on this floor and I am not going to have one man who couldn't tell me on the street to shut up, to tell me to shut up in this Chamber and if we are going to dispense with all decorum, if we are going to dispense with it all, then we are going to dispense with it for everybody and we are going to deal here just like we deal on the street. Now I know how to deal on the street and if that is what you want let us say so but if that is not what you want, then let us let the rules apply to everybody and whether it is the Chairman of the Executive Board or anybody else, I think every senator is entitled to some opportunity to express a point of view on this floor.

CLERK: 8 ayes, 27 nays on the motion to adjourn, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion lost. Will the Legislature please take your seats. Senator Beutler, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Point of order, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER MARVEL: State your point.

SENATOR BEUTLER: I don't want to get into a big hassle about this but I think it is only fair to all considered and for the orderly conduct of the Legislature for the rest of the session, for you rather than Senator Lewis, to state for us all for the
