LB 793, 814

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion carried. The bill is advanced. The next bill is 793.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 793 was introduced by Senator Keyes. (Read title.) The bill was read on January 16 and referred to the Banking Committee. It was advanced to General File. I have no amendments, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The Chair recognizes Senator Keyes.

SENATOR KEYES: Mr. Speaker, I move for the advancement of this bill. Something that has to happen every year is ... should be able to make it unnecessary but it isn't so the state credit union can operate and then there is one real good news for you folks who loan and who borrow money. The credit union, the state operated credit unions are the only ones that pay a tax on the intangibles. Federal credit unions, banks, S & Ls and all others do not so let's vote this bill forward.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion is the advancement of 793 to E & R for review. All those in favor vote aye, opposed no. We are voting on the advancement of Senator Keyes bill to E & R for review. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Record.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to advance.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion is carried. The bill is advanced. The next bill is... Is Senator Newell in the room?

CLERK: Yes.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay. We are ready for LB 801.

CLERK: LB 801 was introduced by the Miscellaneous Subjects Committee. (Read title.)

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Newell, there are three amendments up here. It is impossible to process these in this length of time.

SENATOR NEWELL: Yes, I was trying to talk to Senator Murphy about what those do. It is going to take a long time.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, we will proceed. If the two of you reach some agreement, let us know. The next bill is 814.

CLERK: LB 814 was introduced by Senator Johnson. (Read title.) The bill was read on January 17. It was referred to the Banking
