CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays on the motion to advance, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion is carried. The bill is advanced. We now go to LB 280.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 280 was introduced by the Banking Committee. (Read title.) The bill was read on January 15, 1979, referred to Banking and advanced to General File. There are committee amendments by Senator DeCamp's Banking Committee.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The Chair recognizes Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DE CAMP: Mr. President, the committee amendments become the bill. Last year we redid the accountancy laws of the State of Nebraska and every time you redo something that major, of course, then you have the clean up for the next year. Here is the clean up, some things requested by the Governor, some corrections, let me just go through them. The amendments, I repeat, the amendments are the bill then, deletes specific references to the Auditor of Public Accounts, why? Because the Auditor was removed from the board under the stuff we passed, provides for Gubernatorial appointment of two state board members each year. The Governor requested that. The problem was that people were dying or leaving or whatever and they had to have the power to do it every year. It provides for the election of a chairperson and secretary for the state board. The reason is obvious. When you remove the other guy you still have to have a secretary so you have to have somebody appointed. It allows annual roster mailing in December of each year. As I recall, that was to save costs so they weren't doing it in July and so it coordinated with something else. It adds descriptive adjectives, direct and resident, to nouns, oh, to the nouns, supervision and manager, respectively, and provides that CPA offices be staffed by a full time CPA. In other words if you are going to call something a CPA office, you have to have a CPA. It limits fee chargeable to inactive registrants with board. It provides for administrative penalties for violations of the
