takes a simple majority again, is that correct?

SPEAKER MARVEL: Yes.

SENATOR DeCAMP: I know. I don't want a majority, Nelson.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The question, first of all, is shall the House go under Call? All those in favor of that motion vote aye, opposed no. Record.

CLERK: 13 ayes, 1 nay to go under Call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Motion is carried and the House is under Call. The usual instructions. All legislators please take their seats, record your presence. Unauthorized personnel please leave the floor. Okay, there are three excused. Senator Powers, will you please, Senator Koch, Senator Keyes, Senator Beutler, Senator Sieck, Senator Clark, Senator Carsten. We are still looking for Senator Clark and Senator Sieck. Senator Clark and Senator Sieck. Okay, call the roll.

CLERK: Roll call vote commenced.

SPEAKER MARVEL: We are voting on the Landis amendment to the committee amendments.

CLERK: Roll call vote continued. (See pages 901 and 902, Legislative Journal.) 22 ayes, 21 nays, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Motion carried. What is the next amendment?

CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment is by Senator Schmit.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Schmit.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Mr. President, and members of the Legislature, has the amendment been read?

CLERK: The amendment would read as follows: Read Schmit amendment as found on page 902, Legislative Journal.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Mr. President and members of the Legislature, this amendment is easily understood. Contrary to many of the amendments which you have been reading and which you have listened in explanation, there is no doubt about what this amendment does. This amendment to the committee amendments will remove the sixteen percent
