

March 5, 1980

LB 276

SENATOR CLARK: Senator Burrows.

SENATOR BURROWS: I am still interested in the concept of this amendment, but I would like to ask unanimous consent to withdraw the amendment today and then go after it on Select File, it, or a little different wording.

SENATOR CLARK: The amendment is withdrawn. What is the next amendment?

CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment is by Senator Newell. (Read the Newell amendment.)

SENATOR CLARK: Senator Newell.

SENATOR NEWELL: Mr. President and members of the body, I would like to have a little bit of clarification from the Clerk if he could help me a second. How many people do we have gone today?

CLERK: There are eight excused presently, Senator.

SENATOR NEWELL: Well, considering the importance of this legislation and how well it has been worked, I think that I would like to withdraw this motion at this time, and maybe put it on Select File. So if we could....

SENATOR CLARK: The amendment is withdrawn. The next amendment.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment is by Senator Goodrich, and it is on page 907, and I understand that Senator DeCamp is going to address it.

SENATOR CLARK: Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DECAMP: Mr. President, on behalf of Senator Goodrich I will withdraw that amendment. If he wants to try it on a later bill, on Select File let's say, and after we have obtained some additional information as to what the attitudes of various interests are on that particular amendment, then I will take it up. But I don't want to try it at this time on this bill.

SENATOR CLARK: The amendment is withdrawn. The next amendment.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next is by Senator Simon and Senator Burrows, but I understand they wish to withdraw
