LB 887

can we proceed with 887?

CLERK: Yes, Mr. President, Senator Simon, I am not sure, Senator Simon, do you still, you had your motion on 887. Do you not want to do that now, Senator?

SENATOR SIMON: We are laying this over, aren't we?

CLERK: No.

SENATOR SIMON: Well, then he is going to offer that on another bill?

SPEAKER MARVEL: Yes.

SENATOR SIMON: Please put that amendment on whatever bill that is that he is going to offer it on.

CLERK: Oh, all right.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Can we read 887 now then?

CLERK: I think so. Yes, sir.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, will you reassemble so we can complete Final Reading? Okay, is the Legislature ready to proceed with Final Reading? If you will reassemble, I will introduce three guests and then we will proceed. In the, which balcony is this, the North balcony it is my pleasure to introduce from Senator Beutler and Senator Marsh's Districts Anne Hamersky, Tami Gade, and Michele Kromdak, all from the 11th grade, and they are a 4-H group and they are on their way to Washington, D. C. to take a short course in citizenship. No, they are going to take a short course in citizenship before they go to Washington, D. C. Where are you three? Okay, welcome to the Unicameral and good luck in Washington. Are you ready to read LB 887, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Yes, sir. Final Reading of LB 887.

SPEAKER MARVEL: All provisions of law having been complied with, the question is, shall the bill pass? Those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. LB 887 on Final Reading. LB 887 on Final Reading. Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Record vote read. (See pages 1386 and 1387, Legislative Journal.) 40 ayes, 1 nay, 5 excused and not voting and 3 present and not voting, Mr. President.
