SPEAKER MARVEL: The bill does not pass on Final Reading. Before we begin the next bill, in the north balcony it is my privilege to present from sixty counties in Nebraska 128 Junior High School students from the Nebraska Farm Bureau Federation from all over the State of Nebraska in charge of Mr. Frank Chambers, and among those in the group is Senator Kremer's granddaughter. We welcome all of you to the Unicameral. I may indicate to you that the Constitution of this state requires that we....that the Clerk read each bill on Final Reading word for word, and therefore we have about ten bills left to read before we get into some other discussions. So right now the Clerk is reading the bills word for word, bill by bill, but we do welcome you to the Unicameral this morning. The Clerk will read on Final Reading LB 673.
