LB 605

proposed are the ones you are going to live under. These are the ones you have to abide by. These are the standards you know in advance what you can and cannot do. I am simply saying when we pass this new law which might have the possibility, might have the possibility of creating confusion on the subject, that at the same time we say, labor unions, laws already in existence are the ones we still want you to have to live by, that we want the police to enforce with respect to you and so the police know and the public knows and the labor union knows, those are the laws that apply, not this particular one. So to say that saddle clubs and everything else is involved, I think is really not being honest and accurate. If we did have specific laws with respect to saddle clubs and with respect to the farm organizations that would be a separate question. We do not at this time. You might say that this is the standard or the law that would be involved with saddle clubs, farm organizations, so on and so forth, this new one that Senator Haberman is proposing. So I urge you to adopt the amendment with the understanding that it is simply saying to the labor unions, the laws we have written out for you and the standards we have applied are the ones we want you to live by.
