

March 25, 1980

LB 999

the public will not take it lightly. I don't know how the press will treat it but given the normal accent upon the trivia I would expect that the $7,500 amendment will get more accent than a seven and a half million dollar amendment.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Your time is up.

SENATOR SCHMIT: I ask that you support the amendment and remove it from the budget. Mr. President, in order to save time I ask for a Call of the House right now.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The question now is, shall the House go under Call. All those in favor vote aye, opposed no. Record.

CLERK: 11 ayes, 1 nay to go under Call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The House is under Call. All legislators please take your seats, record your presence. Unauthorized personnel please leave the floor. Senator Koch, Senator Warner, Senator Keyes, Senator Keyes is excused, Senator Rumery, Senator Johnson, Senator Kremer, Senator Dworak, Senator Haberman, Senator Goodrich, Senator Marsh. While we are waiting for the rest of the Legislature to come in and record their presence it is my privilege to introduce to you underneath the South balcony, the Reverend and Mrs. Robert Trigger of Taree, Australia, State of New South Wales. They are guests of former Senator and Mrs. Stull. Will you... welcome to the Unicameral. Senator Schmit, everybody is here but Senator Haberman. Senator Haberman, will you please record your presence. Senator Wagner is excused.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Okay, let's vote.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Two, four, six, eight. There are eight excused.

SENATOR SCHMIT: There are only seven missing on the board.

SPEAKER MARVEL: This is the UFO. Okay, two, four... There are six absent. Everybody else is here. Now are we voting on...? What is the motion before the House?

CLERK: The Paranormal Claims Research.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, the motion is the adoption of the Schmit amendment. Okay. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Do you want the Schmit amendment read? Have you all voted? Senator Schmit. Record the vote.

8977