CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Johnson now moves to amend the bill.

SENATOR JOHNSON: Mr. Speaker, members of the body, my amendment is a relatively simple amendment. It is to delete $27,000 from the budget of Peru State College in Peru, Nebraska, and I am doing this in conjunction with LB 997 which would reappropriate $300,000 for the renovation of Majors Hall at Peru State College. I would like to go into this in some detail. Two years ago this body authorized an expenditure of $2,300,000 for the building of a Physical Education Building and Health Center at Peru State College. Included in that appropriation was $300,000 to renovate Majors Hall which is a revenue bond dormitory sitting right next to the site of the Physical Education Building. We have almost completed the construction of this Physical Education Building at Peru State College. I have been down. I went down ten days ago to inspect the building and Majors Hall. The building itself has five basketball courts, an olympic size swimming pool, an indoor pole vault pit, an indoor broad jump pit. It is
