Just grab the closest microphone there, that will be all right, won't it, Mr. President. Senator Vickers, have you ever seen a printout of what the schools would receive under the present formula under the new valuation?

SENATOR VICKERS: I don't think that it is even available.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Well, now I didn't ask you that. I said have you seen one?

SENATOR VICKERS: No, I have never seen one because I don't think the department (interruption).

SENATOR HABERMAN: Senator Johnson, have you ever seen one, a printout of what the schools would receive under the...just grab the closest one so it won't take so much time, what the schools would receive under the present formula under the new valuation?

SENATOR CLARK: Will you respond, Senator Johnson.

SENATOR JOHNSON: You want to know if I have seen a printout of what the schools would receive?

SENATOR HABERMAN: Have you ever seen a printout that showed those figures?

SENATOR JOHNSON: Using the existing formula under the new valuation...with the new valuation?

SENATOR HABERMAN: Using the present formula on the new valuation?

SENATOR JOHNSON: No, but I have....

SENATOR HABERMAN: Thank you. Thank you.

SENATOR JOHNSON: No, no,.....

SENATOR HABERMAN: I asked you a question. Senator Koch. I would like to ask Senator Koch a question please. Senator Koch, have you ever seen a printout of what the schools would receive under the present formula under the new valuation of the schools or of the land, reevaluation? I am asking Senator Koch. Will you turn his microphone on?

SENATOR CLARK: We will.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Thank you.
