

implement and. . . .

SENATOR COPE: The main thing, how much was it?

SENATOR DeCAMP: Last year?

SENATOR COPE: Yes, that we put in the A bill.

SENATOR DeCamp; I don't know.

SENATOR COPE: A $125,000? $150,000?

SENATOR DeCAMP: I think a hundred and a quarter but. . . .

SENATOR COPE: All right, say a hundred. . . did we take that much money in in litter tax to date?

SENATOR DeCAMP: Oh, yes. Yes, yes.

SENATOR COPE: Now, the $75,000 this year why can't that be used instead of putting 75 more in?

SENATOR DeCAMP: Because we are expanding the base of the tax, as Senator Schmit explained, and so we have some additional start up money for this other expansion.

SENATOR COPE: But we haven't taken in enough last year.... from last year to take care of that 75 then?

SENATOR DeCAMP: No, that is not true at all. You. . . .

SENATOR COPE: That is what I want to be sure. . . I just. . .

SENATOR DeCAMP: You have been listening to the propaganda.

SENATOR COPE: No, I haven't. I just looked at the book now.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Okay, let me tell you this. This was a bit confusing at the hearing by the way, the argument was well look this is only taking in $120,000 or something and it is costing that much almost to implement. In truth the start up costs included all of that mailing, that everybody is familiar with. . . .

SENATOR COPE: Very well.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Yes, that went out to the whole world, it included all of that and it included the computer stuff and the receipts were just like the first quarter or something, in fact it was raising, I think, they estimated that it was
