SENATOR DeCAMP: You withdrew yours? Okay, that is all I need to know.

SENATOR CLARK: Senator Koch.

SENATOR KOCH: Mr. Clerk, I will withdraw that amendment if that is the first one I put up.

CLERK: Senator, I am having difficulty hearing.

SENATOR KOCH: I said I will respectfully withdraw that amendment if it is the first one I put up there.

CLERK: Okay.

SENATOR CLARK: (gavel.) The Clerk can't even hear what is going on.

SENATOR KOCH: I've heard enough arguments this afternoon and I am getting a headache. Now the second one I am serious about.

CLERK: Senator, which one is the second one? That is what I don't know.

SENATOR KOCH: That is the one on hold harmless.

SENATOR CLARK: We are talking about the suspension of the rules at the present time. Senator Cullan, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR CULLAN: Mr. President, are there further lights on on suspension of the rules?

SENATOR CLARK: I have two more lights on, Senator Hefner and Senator Newell.

SENATOR HEFNER: Question.

SENATOR NEWELL: Before the Koch amendment.

SENATOR CLARK: What is it you wanted to do?

SENATOR NEWELL: I was just curious how that got up there? Was that on the desk before the Koch amendment?

CLERK: Yes, sir, it was.

SENATOR CLARK: The question has been called for. The question has been called for. Give me five hands out there first. All right. All those in favor of ceasing debate
