

April 14, 1980

LB 361A

at the time by some people outside that perhaps we might be able to make an exemption and had you considered that approach to get the urban vote?

SENATOR DeCAMP: Senator...

SENATOR SIMON: Simon.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Simon, whatever your name is, I had people get together with Senator Kremer and his staff and we tried to come up with language that I thought was super reasonable and super workable and rather than spending a lot of time even discussing the amendment at this point, if the votes aren't there to suspend the rules to take it up, it is a moot question. You may remember it did come up on another bill. I was assured I would be offered the next bill on General File that was to come up to put it on. For that reason I withdrew it when I did have twenty-five votes one day. All I am trying to do now is to bring it up in view of those circumstances but (interruption).

SENATOR SIMON: I understand that, John. There is no point in wasting the body's time if you are going to come up with something I am not going to vote for, that is totally unpalatable to what I consider to be the best interest of the urban area.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Okay, why don't you look on page, whatever it is, 1769.

SENATOR SIMON: It is a little tough when you take 954A which you are now going to use for the district election bill and switch amendments. You know it is a little confusing that you didn't give us the roadmap in terms of how you were going to offer these amendments. We could follow them a little bit easier. Go ahead, John.

SENATOR DeCAMP: I don't know what the question is.

SENATOR SIMON: You were going to try to explain the amendment.

SENATOR DeCAMP: The amendment eliminates the right of eminent domain...

SENATOR SIMON: Is it going to take care of the concerns that I have, yes or no, in the urban area?

SENATOR DeCAMP: Senator Simon, I don't know exactly what