LB 789, 789A, 817

support by this body on issues that I consider to be of concern and very humanitarian. I would hope that somebody in this body would take a chance. Senator Marvel, this is in your home area. Senator Cullan, as chairman of the Public Health and Welfare Committee I know that you do have some interest. I just cannot understand and the thing I guess that happens time after time is that the only time that anything ever happens is after a complaint is filed. Then we go back and try and find out what happens, never doing anything before. I've stated my two cents worth for the record. I feel a little bit better. I won't take up any more time. I withdraw the motion.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The Clerk will read on Final Reading 789A.

CLERK: (Read LB 789A on Final Reading.)

SPEAKER MARVEL: All provisions of law having been complied with, the question is, shall the bill pass. Those in favor vote aye, opposed no, 789A. Have you all voted? Record the vote.

CLERK: (Read record vote as found on page 1888 of the Legislative Journal.) 31 ayes, 13 nays, 4 present and not voting, 1 excused and not voting, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The bill is declared passed on Final Reading. Before we go to the next bill, in the North balcony it is my pleasure to introduce from Senator Barrett's district, 8 eighth grade students from Loomis Public Schools, Loomis, Nebraska, and their teacher, Mr. Wayne Jensen. Where are you located so we can... Welcome to the Unicameral. We are in the midst of Final Reading and the Constitution requires that the bills be read finally word for word and that is what we are doing now. The Clerk will read on Final Reading, LB 817.

CLERK: Mr. President, if I may I would like to read in the fact that we got a reference report from the Executive Board referring the interim study resolutions. That will be inserted in the Journal. (See pages 1888-93 of the Journal.)

Mr. President, Senator Fowler has a motion on LB 817. I understand he wishes to withdraw. (Read LB 817 on Final Reading.)

SPEAKER MARVEL: All provisions of law having been complied with, the question is, shall the bill pass. Those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Okay, record the vote.
