circumstances. I do not personally believe that we will have injured, we will have injured this state by continuing somewhat restrictive personal loan laws whereas we might have some negative effect on the state if we were so restrictive in the agricultural credit area or in the commercial credit area but I don't think that is true in the personal loan law area and, in fact, it seems to me that we contribute to the fight against inflation by keeping credit practices in this area (interruption).
