LR 21, 113

what the committee amendment was all about by the way, InterNorth and some other major companies like this are willing, if this state will pass the first of these resolutions,...

PRESIDENT: A half a minute, Senator.

SENATOR DeCAMP: ...to go to the other states, thirty-eight states that InterNorth is in, and try to get the same regulation or the same resolution passed so they can tell the President, so they can tell the administration, "Look! We who are involved would rather go slow than take the immediate deregulation". I urge you to support the resolution. As I say, I am not a bad Republican because I support the resolution. If Mr. Willis Strauss and Senator Kremer feel as strongly as they do, and I am sorry he is not here today, I think you had better take a second look. I urge you to support the resolution.

PRESIDENT: The question before the House is the adoption of LR 21. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Record the vote.

CLERK: 28 ayes, 9 nays on adoption of LR 21, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion carries. The Legislative Resolution 21 is adopted. That will conclude agenda item #4, Mr. Clerk, if you want to read some things in.

CLERK: Mr. President, very simply, a notice from Senator Hefner regarding reapportionment guidelines will be inserted in the Journal. (See page 1452 of the Journal.)

PRESIDENT: We are ready now for agenda item #5, Final Reading. The Sergeant at Arms will clear the aisles. All members will be at their desks, and we will commence with Final Reading. I will tell you at the outset that the order for Final Reading has been changed to this extent that the first bill on your Final Reading list, LB 76, will be at the bottom of the list rather than at the top of the list, and we will commence with LB 113. I also want to note for those who have asked a question about 113A being on the Final Reading list, this is because LB 113 is a Cash Fund and not a General Fund A bill, so that explains the reason why we have an A bill on the Final Reading list at this time. We will now...as soon as everyone is at their desks, we will commence with Final Reading. All right, we are ready, Mr. Clerk, I guess for LB 113 on Final Reading. There is a motion on the desk. Read the motion.
