

SENATOR CLARK: LB 320.

CLERK: Mr. President, if I may before that Senator Dworak would like to print amendments to LB 552 in the Journal.

Mr. President, with respect to LB 320 there are E & R amendments pending first of all Mr. President.

SENATOR CLARK: Senator Kilgarin.

SENATOR KILGARIN: I move the E & R amendments to LB 320.

SENATOR CLARK: You all heard the motion. All in favor say aye, opposed no. The amendments are adopted. Do you have anything further on the bill?

CLERK: Yes sir, I have a series of amendments. Mr. President, the first is by Senator Lamb. Senator you have a couple of different amendments. I understand that you wish to withdraw those?

SENATOR LAMB: I have a third. . .I'll withdraw those first two and substitute the third one, which is on the desk.

SENATOR CLARK: Has this been printed in the Journal?

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Lamb. . .no sir, it has not. Do you want me to read it Senator?

SENATOR LAMB: Please.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Lamb would move to amend the bill.(Read Lamb amendment).

SENATOR CLARK: Senator Lamb.

SENATOR LAMB: Mr. Chairman, members of the Legislature, this is a compromise amendment which has been approved by those who have been supportive of letting the tech college, the Western Tech College exceed the mill levy limit, the two mill levy limit by an amount which would bring them up to the 7% lid. We have worked out this amendment which is a three, there is a three year sunset and the amendment is on your desks. I'm sorry it is not in the Journal but it is on your desk. This would be sunsetted after three years and the tax levy increase is an additional 2.2¢ on each hundred dollars valuation, that is above the current 7¢ or it is about two and a . . .well a little less than 2½ mills. It is an additional almost a half mill, not quite a half mill. This is the limit that could be exceeded in order to bring these, this school up to the 7% limit. I think perhaps
