

January 7, 1982

CLERK: 31 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the Wesely-Beutler amendment.

PRESIDENT: The motion carries. The amendment is adopted. Any further amendments? Okay, now the question before the House is the adoption of the Lamb amendment as amended. Senator Lamb, do you wish to say anything further? No others wishing to speak to it, the question then is the adoption of the Lamb amendment as amended. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Record the vote.

CLERK: 32 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of Senator Lamb's amendment.

PRESIDENT: All right, the Lamb amendment is adopted. Now, anything further?

CLERK: Mr. President, the motion now is to adopt the permanent rules as amended.

PRESIDENT: All right, motion to adopt the permanent rules as amended. Senator Wesely, do you have any final close on the rules? The question then is the adoption of the rules as amended, adoption of all the rules as amended. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record the vote.

CLERK: 32 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the permanent rules.

PRESIDENT: Motion carries, the rules are adopted, permanent rules are adopted. Do you have some matters to read in, Mr. Clerk, or any other bills at this point? First some matters to read in.

CLERK: Very quickly, Mr. President, I have a notice of hearing by the Revenue Committee regarding a gubernatorial appointment submitted by Senator Carsten as Chairman.

PRESIDENT: No further bills. If anyone has any bills to bring in, bring them in now. We are ready then for agenda item #7, General File. Mr. Clerk, you may read the first bill, LB 8. Senator Nichol.

SENATOR NICHOL: Mr. President, a point of personal privilege please.

PRESIDENT: Personal privilege.

SENATOR NICHOL: If we are not...(interruption).

PRESIDENT: State your point.

SENATOR NICHOL: There was a lady from western Nebraska who would like to paint a picture of the Unicameral and I