LB 565, 566

SPEAKER MARVEL: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall the bill pass? Those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. 565. Have you all voted? Record the vote.

CLERK: (Record vote read. See page 526, Legislative Journal.) 49 ayes, Mr. President, on the passage of the bill.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The bill is declared passed on Final Reading. The Clerk will read LB 566 on Final Reading.

CLERK: (Read LB 566 on Final Reading.)

SPEAKER MARVEL: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall the bill pass? Those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no.

CLERK: (Read record vote. See pages 526 and 527, Legislative Journal.) 49 ayes, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The bill is declared passed on Final Reading. Before we begin with the next bill, it is my privilege to introduce in the North balcony, 11 high school seniors from Marquette, Nebraska, Genie Solt, teacher. I might say to the guests that we appreciate your being here. We want you to know that when the Clerk reads rapidly, as has happened while you have been here, that simply indicates that we have in effect a law, a constitutional provision, which states that every bill must be read in full and that is what you heard, and there are people that are confused with this and it simply indicates that if we want to change this, the people of the state have to vote in a different provision. This goes back to several years after the Nebraska Territory was founded. Now while we are changing the guard, so to speak, Senator Clark, while we are changing the guard and I have cleaned up a mess or two up here and one of these has to do with LB 376, and I thought we had done something with that, Senator DeCamp. Is it still around?

SENATOR DeCAMP: Mr. President, I would have no objection if you just want to take it up now.

SPEAKER MARVEL: I am not taking it up. I am putting it in the wastebasket.

SENATOR DeCAMP: No, no, don't do that. It is my understanding it is back on Final Reading so whenever you want to take it up.
