LB 572, 413

SENATOR CLARK: The Clerk will read LB 572.

CLERK: (Read LB 572 on Final Reading.)

SENATOR CLARK: All provisions of law according to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall the bill pass with the emergency clause attached? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay.

CLERK: Senator Clark voting yes.

SENATOR CLARK: Record the vote.

CLERK: (Record vote read. See pages 527 and 528, Legislative Journal.) 49 ayes, Mr. President.

SENATOR CLARK: The bill is declared passed with the emergency clause attached. We will now take up 413.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have a motion on the desk. Senator DeCamp would move to return LB 413 to Select File for specific amendment. (Read DeCamp amendment as found on page 528, Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR CLARK: Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Mr. President, I am not going to spend a lot of time on this. The Hoagland amendment eliminated the requirement for visual observation in conjunction with the use of radar and I think Senator Chambers has amply documented that law enforcement and the courts themselves are the strongest insisters upon this requirement. So I guess I happen to believe that you are doing law enforcement a favor and the courts a favor keeping in law very clearly what they have insisted upon. That is all.

SENATOR CLARK: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, I agree with what Senator DeCamp has stated, and having given you the handouts that I have done, I don't believe that anything I said could elaborate or be more effective in presenting the need for this amendment so I support what Senator DeCamp is offering.

SENATOR CLARK: Senator Hoagland.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: Mr. President and colleagues, I don't feel strongly about this but let me just give you the
