PRESIDENT LUEDTKE PRESIDING

PRESIDENT: Prayer by Chaplain Palmer.

CHAPLAIN PALMER: Oh God, we pray as we look at the calendar and realize how much has been done but how much more needs doing. We ask for your contentment in this day that we may not waste what time is ours, desiring more than is likely but learn to use and enjoy that which is ours. We may not know everything but we do know Thee and Your will. We may not be rich but we can be generous. We do not have to have all wisdom to be understanding. We do not have to win every vote in order to be a good Senator. Our influence may not always be great but it can be good. Our speech may not always be eloquent but it can be truthful. We cannot all have good looks but we can have good conscience, and having that we shall have peace of mind and need fear no one. So this day may we be kind to one another, tenderhearted and forgiving as if each person's heart might be breaking, because it probably is. Amen.
