first time. Refer to pages 115 through 119 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: Under the order of the Speaker we are now to take up LR 6. We're not? Speaker Nichol. Is Speaker Nichol in the Chamber? Apparently we are not going to go on to LR 6.

SPEAKER NICHOL: That is fine. I think Senator DeCamp has one resolution having to do...

PRESIDENT: There is nothing on the agenda other than two and three.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Oh, all right. All right we can wind it up then.

PRESIDENT: You want to make your statement about personal privilege.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Yes.

PRESIDENT: May we have your attention, please. (Gavel.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: Ladies and gentlemen, if you had a look at the Star this morning, you perhaps noticed at the end of the legislative calendar are some unusual, it says LBs, but I assume it should have been LRs. Anyway they were ridiculous. Having talked with Nancy Hicks, it appears that no one in this body did that, for which I am extremely happy because I would hate to bring this up to the body if someone in this body had done that. But apparently it is a mistake on the part of the Star. They are going to retract it, I hope in great big letters, bigger than what it was there. But, anyway, I wanted to allay your fears that nobody in this body had done that. John DeCamp, you are smiling. Did you do that actually? Well, anyway, I'm sure it would have been embarrassing to us had that happened actually. So, relax about that. We have plenty of time, next week, for further conversation and debate on resolutions and rule changes. So it is not necessary that we go on after lunch today. Next week we will start every day at ten o'clock. Monday morning we are going to have a chairmen of committees meeting to plan some things. Chief Justice Krivosha is coming in Friday to talk to us about the state of the judiciary. The Governor will be in Tuesday, I believe it
