

institutions in the state, whether they were agricultural, small banks, or whatever, that were in the same factual setting as Commonwealth. Secondly, with respect to farm capital, it is true that, for example, I voted for the agriculture development funds, the pre-NIFA fund that does spend millions of dollars for agricultural support.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Senator Landis...

SENATOR LANDIS: And third, if there is...

SENATOR HABERMAN: ...you are getting way out into something that is going to use up my time, so I guess your answer is no.

SENATOR LANDIS: That is not my answer. But if you would like to me let answer, I will be happy to answer, but if you would like to imagine what my answer is, I guess I don't have to answer, I will sit down.

SENATOR HABERMAN: No, but supporting other bills doesn't have anything to do with my question.

SENATOR LANDIS: You are right. There is no amendment up there for that. Show me an amendment and I will tell you whether I will vote for it.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Senator Schmit, may I ask you a question?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Would you respond, Senator Schmit, please?

SENATOR HABERMAN: I am rather surprised at you, Senator Schmit, that you would stand up and put in a resolution like this. It really doesn't mean anything. I mean, why didn't you put some money in there to help the agriculture sector? We pass this resolution and we are passing the intent to throw $20,500,000 of state tax dollars into one issue to help them and then you come before this body with an agriculture issue, you don't have any money in it. I don't understand this, Senator Schmit. Would you mind explaining that, Senator Schmit?

SENATOR SCHMIT: Sure, Senator Haberman. I will try and do that, Senator Haberman. As you know, I am a very modest unassuming individual who never pushes or shoves or tries to force his way into anyone else's domain. But I learned a
