who are going to Washington, tomorrow morning at eight o'clock. Also immediately upon adjournment today Senator Harris has asked for a meeting of the Retirement Committee under the north balcony, immediately after adjournment today. Retirement Committee under the north balcony upon retirement, when you retire, something like that. One more time, chairmen of committees, we do need your bills that you have advanced from committee to be reported to the Clerk. We are out of things to do, so I hate to say this to you repeatedly and nag you, but we could be using some of our time early in the session here on important bills. Tomorrow we should be pretty well occupied, I think, with two or three bills. Senator Carsten, did you wish to be recognized? Do you have something, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Mr. President, first of all I have notice of hearing from the Health and Welfare Committee offered by Senator Wesely.

Finally, Mr. President, Appropriations Committee will meet upon adjournment today in Room 1003. Appropriations Committee upon adjournment in Room 1003. That is offered by Senator Warner.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Is that all?

CLERK: Yes, sir.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Smith, would you come to your microphone, please, and give us a few intelligent words from Hastings about what time we are going to take up tomorrow, please?

SENATOR SMITH: I would be happy to. Mr. President and members of this body, I make a motion that we adjourn until nine o'clock tomorrow morning, February 8...is that tomorrow morning?

SPEAKER NICHOL: That's close.

SENATOR SMITH: Okay.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Thank you. You have heard the motion. All in favor say aye. All in favor say aye. Opposed nay. We are adjourned until tomorrow at nine o'clock. Thank you. We will be taking (recorder malfunction) and also 126, I
