

SPEAKER NICHOL: Does that answer your question, Senator Goll?

SENATOR GOLL: Okay, Mr. President, then we're dealing with the second section of this amendment which begins on line 3. Okay.

SPEAKER NICHOL: That is right and everything thereafter, yes. Senator Schmit, did you wish to close again or...?

SENATOR SCHMIT: Mr. President, I would like to check this with Tip. Could we pass over the amendment for just a moment? Is that possible?

SPEAKER NICHOL: All right, we will do that. We have another amendment and then after we handle this amendment we'll come back to yours if you wish to check it further, that is fine.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator DeCamp would move to amend the bill. (DeCamp amendment appears on page 528 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DECAMP: Mr. President, this is not easy. Please listen carefully. The amendment prepared by the Nebraska Bankers Association that we just adopted, you know, that eliminates de novo and so on and so forth, it also was based upon the language of the bill as it existed when they prepared the amendment. So inadvertently we moved the 11 percent that was just adopted back up to 14 percent which sounds wonderful, but not really. What I want to do is move it back to 11 percent which was adopted, which this body agreed upon. I went and explained it to the Independent Bankers representative, Kurt Yost. He agreed that it was an error and if we want to battle over numbers later, whether it is on General File if it doesn't advance or Select File or whatever, we can have a legitimate battle at another time if they decide to and they may not. But at this point I am asking you, and I think he also agrees, we adopt the technical correcting amendment to move it to 11 which the body had agreed upon. Does anybody misunderstand what I am saying? Well, it's not the easiest thing. I'm a little red-faced, but I didn't do it. I really didn't. I urge you
