

February 15, 1985

That is all that I have.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Smith, would you like to adjourn us until nine o'clock, Tuesday, please.

SENATOR SMITH: I would be happy to, but I don't know what date Tuesday is. February what, 21st?

SPEAKER NICHOL: How about 19th.

SENATOR SMITH: February 19. Mr. President, I make the motion to adjourn this body until Monday...no, Tuesday, isn't it, February the 19th at nine o'clock...ten o'clock, ten o'clock.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Nine.

SENATOR SMITH: Nine, 9:00 a.m.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, you've heard the amended motion...

SENATOR HIGGINS: Mr. Speaker, I vote that we vote on Senator Smith's motion of ten o'clock.

SPEAKER NICHOL: You've heard the amended motion. All those in favor say aye. Opposed nay. We are adjourned until nine o'clock, Tuesday. No, she said ten first. Whatever it is, it is nine o'clock, Tuesday. Amended or not amended it is still nine o'clock, Tuesday. Incidentally, I might say to you that, ladies and gentlemen, come, if I could have your (gavel), if I could have your attention. About Wednesday we have a long bill that takes about an hour and a little more to read. So kind of plan on...plan on eight-thirty, Wednesday, so that we will have about 25 here and then we won't be to the vote until about nine-thirty. So, sort of plan on that for Wednesday morning. Thank you for your attention today. Bye.
