

February 19, 1985

here. I will turn the mike over to the Speaker. You may want to say something to the members.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Mr. President and members of the Legislature, as has been explained, we do need 25 people to start tomorrow and I would really appreciate it if you would punch your green button so that we can start and we will relax the rules a little if it is okay with the President and let you wander about during that hour because several of you have things you want to do. And so if you can see your way clear, I would appreciate a couple more green lights. I hate to put the house under call to get these, but I would like to have somebody to be here at eight-thirty.

PRESIDENT: Very well, we will hope that we will have a quorum here to take on Final Reading tomorrow morning at eight-thirty. The Chair is going to take the risk of denying that request. Senator Vard Johnson, do you want to adjourn us until tomorrow.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: There is no reason why these guys have to adjourn, but anyhow, Mr. President, I would move that the Legislature adjourn itself until Wednesday, February 20, 1985 at 8:30 a.m.

PRESIDENT: You have heard the motion. All those in favor say aye. Opposed no. Motion carried. The Legislature is adjourned until 8:30 a.m. tomorrow morning.
