

SENATOR BEYER: I would like to ask Senator DeCamp if he would be willing in the essence of time to bracket this bill at the present time.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator DeCamp, do you wish to respond?

SENATOR DECAMP: Mr. President, I'm one of those that gets along with everybody. Having survived the first travail, I'll go along and hope they'll work out something in the rotunda. I really believe it can be done.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Do you wish to set a time on this, gentlemen? Well just a minute. Senator Haberman, do you wish to...?

SENATOR HABERMAN: Yes, I have a motion up there to bracket the bill and a time limit on it.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay. When is the time?

SENATOR HABERMAN: March the second when it gives them a week or ten days when some are going to Washington and all that sort of bit.

SENATOR DECAMP: Mr. President, you can do that arbitrarily if you choose and I certainly would not object.

SENATOR HABERMAN: All I'm trying to do is go along with Senator Landis' idea of sitting down and...so if he'd want to read the motion, then let's vote on it and see what happens.

SPEAKER NICHOL: If its agreed I'll set it not before March 4th.

SENATOR DECAMP: That is not Professional Insurance Day we have every year down here, is it?

SENATOR HABERMAN: (Mike not turned on immediately.) ...motion before the body I think that should be taken up.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay. I'll set a date on that until March 4th. Is that agreeable? Does anybody object to that? Senator Haberman, do you object to that date?

SENATOR HABERMAN: In other words, you're bracketing the
