

SPEAKER NICHOL: The house is under call. Will you please return to your seats and record your presence. All those outside the Chamber, please return to the Chamber and record your presence. Senator Chambers, there are four excused. Yes, sir.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: When they are here, a machine vote will be sufficient, but I would like it to be a record vote. It doesn't have to be roll call.

SPEAKER NICHOL: All right. Thank you. If you are here, please record your presence. Please record your presence. Thank you. We are looking for Senator DeCamp, Senator Rod Johnson, Senator Hefner, Senator Nelson, Senator Peterson, Senator Rupp. Please return to your desks and record your presence. Senator Haberman, please record your presence. Senator Hefner and Senator Rupp. Senator DeCamp, Senator Dick Peterson. We are looking for Senator DeCamp and Senator Rupp. Please return promptly. Now we are looking for Senator DeCamp, only. Sergeant-at-arms, do you know where Senator DeCamp is? Senator Chambers, may we go without Senator DeCamp? Okay. Machine vote has been requested. So it will be a record vote. What we are voting on, ladies and gentlemen, is the kill motion by Senator Chambers on the bill. All those in favor of the kill motion please vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted that care to? Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Read record vote found on page 753 of the Legislative Journal.) 15 ayes, 27 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to indefinitely postpone.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The motion fails. Do you have anything else on the bill?

CLERK: I have nothing further on the bill, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to ask advancement of the bill. I guess I've had Senator Goodrich and some other people ask me to maybe explain a little bit more about the Mental Health Commitment Act. I don't really want to take a lot more time, but if you'd give me about two minutes. I can assure you that the
