Eric Endolm and another Persinger. I have two Persingers but I don't have the first name. Would you folks please rise and be recognized by the Legislature. I will get the first name from Senator Nelson, so your first name will be correct in the daily proceedings. Thank you. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have nothing further to the committee amendments.

SPEAKER NICHOL: We are back to the committee amendments. Senator Vickers, did you wish to talk about them first?

SENATOR VICKERS: Mr. President, I would like to ask to divide out the last part of the committee amendments, the part with the elector part, the one that Senator Lamb referred to about having an Attorney General's Opinion on. And the reason I do that is because we are preparing some amendments to try to get around the issues raised by the Attorney General to clarify who the electors are, what the boundaries were. So I would like to divide that part out of the committee amendments and deal with the first three parts as I explained earlier.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Mr. Clerk, do you have a question of...?

CLERK: I need to have you identify for me, Senator, exactly where we are dividing the question then.

SENATOR VICKERS: As the committee amendments are printed in the bill book. Well, can I come down there and go through them with you?

CLERK: I think I have got it, Senator. All right, Mr. President...

SPEAKER NICHOL: Now we are dealing with all of the committee amendments except number one. If you are looking in your bill book, we are handling all of the committee amendments except number one. Senator Vickers, did you wish to speak further about that? All right. Senator Landis. We are dealing with all of the committee amendments except number one.

SENATOR LANDIS: No, I will pass.

SPEAKER NICHOL: No problem with that? All right. The
