

CLERK: Mr. President, the first item I have on 61 is a request from Senator Miller to add his name as co-introducer.

PRESIDENT: Without objection? So ordered.

CLERK: Mr. President, LR 61 offered by Senators Lundy and Miller. It is found on page 834 of the Journal. (Read.)

PRESIDENT: Chair recognizes Senator Lundy.

SENATOR LUNDY: Mr. President and colleagues, it is my pleasure to introduce, again this year, this resolution on behalf of the Kearney Catholic Girls Basketball Team. It is a real delight to see these young ladies go in with the spirit of sportsmanship and come through with another year without losses. This is the second year in a row, the 44th game that they've won. We are real proud of them in Kearney. I'm sure you, likewise, are proud of the sportsmanship that these ladies are performing for us throughout the state. It gives me a lot of pleasure to introduce and support this resolution. I ask your support likewise. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Is there further comment on LR 61? Sounds a bit like the "Lake Woebegone" program where the small towns...where all the women are strong, the men are good looking, and the children all above average. All those in favor of adopting LR 61 vote aye, opposed vote no. Have you all voted? Clerk will record the vote?

CLERK: 29 ayes, 0 nays on adoption of LR 61, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: LR 61 is adopted. Are there any motions?

CLERK: Yes, sir. Mr. President, Senator Hefner, as Chair of the Miscellaneous Subjects Committee, moves for the confirmation of Lucy Buntain to the Arts Council.

PRESIDENT: Chair recognizes Senator Hefner.

SENATOR HEFNER: Mr. President and members of the body, the Miscellaneous Subjects Committee met the other day. We considered the appointment of Lucy Buntain as a member of the Nebraska Arts Council appointment. So I move that this body accept her appointment. Mr. Clerk, I also have several
