

to the fields. They're negotiating their loans and I just don't want to be accused of not being in tune with our constituents. I don't want to be accused of not listening to them. I agree with some of them that said that maybe, just maybe some of the amendments that we just passed, maybe it is a little high, but if we wait a year then we will be able to see what the economy is doing and go from there. If the livestock prices go up, grain prices go up, the ag economy turned around, why I'll certainly be supporting this bill next January. Thank you.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Rex Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. Speaker, I ask for a call of the house. This is an important issue and I think we should be in our chairs listening to it.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question is, shall the house go under call? Do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 12 ayes, 2 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The house is under call. Will you please return to your desks and record your presence. Those outside the Chamber please return to the Chamber and record your presence. Unauthorized personnel please leave the floor and record your presence, please. Senator Haberman, would you record your presence, please. Two are excused, so we are looking for 15 of you. Senator Beutler, Senator Chambers, Senator Chronister, Senator Conway, Senator Goll, Senator Vard Johnson, Senator Labeledz, Senator Rod Johnson, Senator Harris, Senator Dick Peterson. Jackie Smith, record your presence, please. Thank you. Senator Haberman, would it be okay to continue? We are only looking for a couple. Okay. Senator Rod Johnson, please. Now remember, we are under call, ladies and gentlemen, and you are supposed to be in your seats. Just a minute, Senator Rod. Please return to your station. Thank you. Okay, Senator Rod Johnson. Senator Higgins, did you want to talk? Okay, you're up.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Thank you, Mr. President. We are on the issue of Senator Hefner's motion to bracket. Is that correct?
