

are you going to do it when you tell them, but you are going to be in competition with some people that they are not going to pay any taxes but you are going to be taxed? I am not against fraternal organizations, but it is getting to the point any more that everybody is such a good guy he ought not pay his fair share and I just don't believe that it is fair to private enterprise and as you all know, I have no interest in insurance. I sold my insurance agency two years ago. My only interest is in being fair to those people who are still struggling to make a living in a legitimate business. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

PRESIDENT: Senator Hannibal, do you wish to speak on this matter?

SENATOR HANNIBAL: Mr. President and members, I wasn't going to get involved at all in this, however, I feel that I need to just for a moment and I would like to ask Senator Landis if he would yield to a couple of questions. Senator Landis, you told me privately that you did introduce a bill to do something like this, I believe last year. Is that correct?

SENATOR LANDIS: Yes. It was not in the form of a bill. It was in the form of an amendment to an insurance tax bill. I printed the amendment in the Journal giving notice that I was going to raise the issue at the hearing, then people were there. As I recall, we were both present when that discussion took place.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: Right. And you have not introduced any bill to do something like that this year?

SENATOR LANDIS: That is true.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: Has this issue had a hearing in any way this year?

SENATOR LANDIS: The issue has not had a hearing this year. There was a hearing on the issue last year.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: Okay, thank you. I guess I am going to speak a little bit to the freshmen and I wish that you would pay just a little attention because we had a fairly significant thing happen just a little bit ago because we had the first germaneness debate come up on the floor and for those of you that are not familiar with it and I
