

excused at the present time. Senator Barrett, would you record your presence, please. Senators Chizek and Chambers, the house is under call. Senator Conway, please record your presence. Senator Hoagland, please. Senators Chizek and Chambers. Senators Chizek and Chambers, the house is under call. Please come to the Chamber and record your presence. Senators Chambers and Chizek, please report to the Legislative Chamber, the house is under call. The motion before us is an amendment offered by Senator Beutler. It has been under discussion on LB 47. Senator Chambers, you are the one missing now. Could you come to the Chamber, please, for a call of the house. Call of the house. Please record your presence. Senator Chambers. Roll call vote has been requested. Here we go. We have a full complement now. A roll call vote has been requested. May we have silence in the Chamber so that your vocal vote may be heard by the Clerk. The issue is the adoption of the Beutler amendment to LB 47. Please vote aye or nay. The Clerk will call the roll.

CLERK: (Read the roll call vote as found on page 875 of the Legislative Journal.) 21 ayes, 19 nays, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion fails and is there another amendment on the desk?

CLERK: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT: The call of the house is raised.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment I have to the bill is by Senator Beutler. Senator, this is Request 284. (The Beutler amendment appears on page 876 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislature. We are still on the same section of the statutes dealing with the board and the board members. And, frankly, I am kind of glad I lost that one because if you are going to be consistent in philosophy, you will most certainly adopt this particular amendment. I take it that the thrust of the last vote was that you feel that the board is too inbred and that you wanted to keep the member of the public totally separate and apart from the board. The
