

wouldn't he do it? Let me call another thing to your attention this morning. Only Nevada, only Nevada, one state in our nation, allows bookmaking. Doesn't that tell you something? It certainly tells me something. I feel that gambling is not conducive to the good family life that we have in Nebraska and I think we ought to keep it that way. And another thing about gambling, many times, those people that gamble can least (interruption).

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Hefner. Senator Hefner.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: A point of personal privilege.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Hefner, excuse me, one moment please. Senator Chambers, for what reason (interruption)?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Did he say that I am being paid for what I am doing on this bill, did you say that?

SENATOR HEFNER: No, no.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I thought Senator Hefner said that I am being paid very well for what (interruption).

SENATOR BEUTLER: I think Senator Hefner just clarified, Senator Chambers, that he did not say that.

SENATOR HEFNER: Senator Chambers, (interruption).

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If he said that, he is a barefaced liar.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Chambers, he indicated he did not say that.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Then we will check the transcript.

SENATOR HEFNER: Okay, Senator Chambers, I did not say that. I said that Coach Bob Devaney, our Athletic Director at the University, is being well paid to put on this program, and if I did say it, why, I certainly apologize for that. Our Constitution is quite clear on gambling. Most gambling issues I believe are unconstitutional except those that are spelled out in our Constitution. And these are the gambling issues that are spelled out in our Constitution, such as, parimutuel wagering, bingo, raffles. These forms of gambling are constitutional because they were approved by
