LB 38

PRESIDENT: But we have voted to cease debate. We voted to have a call of the house. I'm sorry, you correct me, that is right.

SENATOR HIGGINS: So...

PRESIDENT: The motion before us is...

SENATOR HIGGINS: Cease debate.

PRESIDENT: ...to cease debate.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Unless Senator Beutler didn't mean it that way.

PRESIDENT: No, no, he meant it that way and I just...

SENATOR HIGGINS: Okay.

PRESIDENT: ...forgot one trick up here. Sorry.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Okay, thank you.

PRESIDENT: You may call in your votes on the question of ceasing debate.

CLERK: Senator Remmers voting no.

PRESIDENT: The Clerk will record the vote. Oh, no, wait a minute, wait a minute. I didn't mean that. Okay, Senators Barrett and Beutler, please record your presence so we may know...all members in your seats, please check to see if you have your green button on. Senator Goll. He wants to call in his vote.

CLERK: Senator Goll...

PRESIDENT: We are voting on the motion to cease debate.

CLERK: ...voting yes. Senator Labeledz voting yes. Senator Withem voting yes. Senator Haberman changing from yes to no. Senator Harris voting no. Senator Goodrich voting yes. Senator Marsh, did you want to vote yes, Senator? Voting yes.

PRESIDENT: The Clerk will record.
