

do the job that we are down here for.

PRESIDENT: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And the staff controls the Legislature and does not put us always in the best light. But people in this state have a tendency to separate me from the rest of the Legislature. They tell me, you are the only one down there with any sense; you are the only one down there with integrity. And I have their letters to demonstrate it, Senator Hannibal. I didn't say it. I am telling you what the public says and sometimes the public is informed and correct. Senator Wesely, I don't hold up a flag of surrender. I say you have got me well whipped this morning. You crushed me. But like the Phoenix, and this is a mixing of metaphors, I will rise from the ashes and I will fight again and I will bet I will be able to live better with my vote today than you will two years from now.

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Hoagland. I have a request for recognition from Senators Vard Johnson and Higgins. We remain under call.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: I would like to call the question, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The question is called. Do I see five hands? I do. The question to you is shall the debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. The motion is to cease debate on the motion to suspend the rules and proceed immediately. Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion prevails and the debate does cease. It is Senator Wesely's privilege to close.

SENATOR WESELY: Mr. President, I would just apologize to Senator Chambers and Senator Higgins if they were offended by my use of the term "harassment". I am understanding that they are sincere in their efforts and I am not trying to say they aren't. However, we have heard from both individuals a number of times and we are hearing the same comments time and again. I am not sure we are covering new ground with any further debate. I hate to say that. We have taken two
