

Senator Labeledz, did I miss any of the other women Senators, Senator Nelson, the Constitution also said women will not have the right to vote until we amended it. So, so much for that holy writ they keep calling the Constitution. How many centuries old is it? How far back do we have to go to prove that the Constitution was not handed down by God to Moses and that we follow it completely and that it is one hundred percent correct all of the time? Senators, all that Senator Chambers is asking for, and this is important to each and every one of you, all that Senator Chambers is asking for is what many of you in the past have asked for and which many of you, Senator Barrett and Senator Hefner, Senator Peterson, Senator Beyer, many of you in the future may have to ask for a motion to reconsider a vote on a bill that you truly believe in. So the question right now before you isn't gambling. The question before you isn't, shall bookies be able to take bets because they are professional bet takers the same as every race track, the same as every bingo parlor? The question that we are being asked to vote on is, shall Senator Ernie Chambers...

SPEAKER NICHOL: One minute.

SENATOR HIGGINS: ...have the right to ask you to give him the votes to reconsider this bill? I know each and every one of you want to be fair, and we have done this many times for other senators and you don't know when the day is going to come when you will want to reconsider a bill that has been indefinitely postponed or did not advance. That is all I am asking you to do is ask yourself, will you ever want this same consideration? I know that Senator Chambers probably won't hold it against anybody that votes against his motion to reconsider. I haven't seen him operate that way. I have never seen him hold a grudge though I think a lot of people know that I do. I usually get over it after two or three days but I do hold a grudge a lot of times when they vote against me.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Time is up.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Thank you, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator DeCamp and then Senator Morehead. Senator Morehead, would you like to go now? Okay.

SENATOR MOREHEAD: Mr. President, I was going to wait and
